Spring 2016

Hello Folks,

A short term this time round, as is this newsletter, as is my introduction!

No Class Thursday 10 March 2016

The Shirley Methodist Church are holding their bi-annual book sale on Friday 11 and Saturday 12 March 2016, which means we will not be able to hold classes on the proceeding Thursday night due to them setting up. Normal service will resume the following week, Thursday 17 March 2016.

Grafton - Dulwich Festival - Sunday 8 May 2016

We have a very special event coming up in conjunction with the Dulwich Festival on Sunday 8 May 2016. Dulwich Festival is a combination of events that take place annually in May that celebrate the many artistic and cultural aspects of Dulwich and its surrounding areas.

This is the first year that we have, at the Grafton, opened our doors to the attendees of the festival and is, in my mind, to be considered a major step to establishing the Studios' presence within the local community. It is a celebration and one I would very much like you to be part of. Much is still up for discussion with the festival organisers but what I can tell you at this moment is that we have a live band, a latin demonstration by Izabela Skupin and her partner Leighton Kirk, alcohol will be on sale and there will be a 45 minute basic dance lesson beforehand. Times and price of tickets are still to be fixed but I think, although yet to be confirmed, that kick off will be 7pm, finishing at 10.30pm.

As soon as the unknowns become known I will update you straight away.

Spring/Summer Term - Finish/Start Dates

As we cannot operate at the Church on Holy week - Maundy Thursday 24 March 16, the last classes before Easter will be held on Thursday 17 March 2016.

We will have a two week break over Easter with all classes resuming on Thursday 7 April 2016.

Best regards

Paul and Team
