New Classes at Fairfield Halls, Croydon. Start Tuesday 16 February 2010

I have recently been in discussion with the organizers at Fairfield Halls and we have agreed to run an evening of Ballroom Dance Classes, followed by a session of social dancing on Tuesday evenings in the Arnhem Gallery, Fairfield Halls. For those of you that have not had the pleasure of visiting the gallery it is quite a plush room with a large floor and licensed bar, which, I am told they intend to open.

The man in charge also tells me that they have regular enquiries from people wanting to know if Fairfield Halls still facilitates Ballroom dancing. He is sure that the package that we are about to offer will become a hit. His view has been that in recent years the 'Peggy Spencer' approach to the classes has been lost, and that if it went back to basics and incorporate social dancing after the classes, people will return. Who knows, let's see if SFD can emulate Peggy's past successes with our own particular style?

an opportunity to start the weekend off with a bit of fun, a bit of dancing and a chance to socialize with like minded people.

Christmas Party Saturday 19 December 2009

Almost there, almost arranged and only final adjustments to be taken care of; and I personally, still feel fairly calm, lets see how long I can keep that going?

As you know we have arranged a Latin American Demonstration for you by a young, dynamic, newly formed couple, who, I have no doubt will be the highlight of the evening's entertainment. I hope you enjoy it.

Also, for you information we will be offering soft drinks as an alternative to the Mulled wine on your arrival and please remember to bring your own drinks for later on. We look forward to seeing you. If anyone else is interested in coming please see one of us Thursday or contact me by phone or email.

Best regards

Paul and Team
